Our Team

* Coach to more than 50 TEDx Greensboro speakers!

Rich & Sarah Schlentz

Creative Consultants, Speakers, Leadership Coaches, and Authors

Rich and Sarah feel weird talking about themselves in the 3rd person in these bio things. Instead of pretending like someone else wrote this about them, they (well...actually "we") are going to be real. Ahhh. That's better. We are partners in the office and in life. Through EXTRAordinary! Inc., our mission is to revive your work. In our collaborations with companies, teams, and individuals, we provide the tools to create breakthrough performance. We focus on relationship principles, and help organizations develop strategies to increase team engagement, commitment, and productivity. We guide leaders to create and foster engaging cultures that communicate with passion and authenticity resulting in improved loyalty, creativity, innovation, and profitability.

EXTRAordinary Inc.'s debut book is: Your Employees Have Quit—They Just Haven't Left.

“Knowledge isn’t power;

application is.”

Hanes Brands

“After each workshop, participants full of enthusiasm tell me how working with EXTRAordinary! Inc. was the best learning/development experience they have ever had in their professional career. It is amazing to see how much each participant progresses in such a short period of time.”

Jeff Carter (jeff.carter@hanes.com)
